

"The Summit cultivates rising generations to resolutely champion a Biblical worldview."

Every position with Summit Ministries is essential to the ministry and its fulfillment of our mission statement. Therefore, every employee of Summit must be a Christ follower who has accepted Jesus Christ as their Lord and Savior. Every employee must be able and willing to share the Gospel and Biblical worldview and to lead and/or participate in devotions, exhortation and prayer.

2016 Curriculum Intern
Reports to: Curriculum Managing Editor, Macki Jones

When: May 31 - July 29, 2016 (25 hrs per week)

Where: Summit Ministries - Manitou Springs, CO

Compensation: Unpaid/Educational

Are you interested in learning what it takes to develop a curriculum? The Summit Curriculum Intern will work at the ground level, learning what it takes to put Christian curriculum together and be a part of a team with years of combined experienced. They will help with demographic tracking, Scripture research, copy editing (based on experience), and other projects necessary for developing a curriculum.

This person:

- Is a college Junior or above
- Is studying Education, Journalism, Communications, English, Biblical studies, or Curriculum Development
- Is self-motivated and determined to complete projects
- Excellent written communication skills
- Enjoys working with a team but can work alone as well
- Is available to be on-site at Summit's headquarters through entirety of program
- Must have personal laptop with internet and Microsoft Office available (PC only)